

I am recommending you not invoke a nationwide telephone privacy law. We have such a great one in Indiana, that I would hate to have a less limiting law put in place. Since the Privacy law has taken place we have gone from 3-4 phone calls a day to 0 calls from telemarketers. It is such a relief to know when the phone rings it will be from a "wanted" caller, not an unwanted telemarketer.